

THE CASH CLUB

CREDIT SCORES

"Today, these scores are incredibly important in whether the lender lets you borrow money, and the interest rate they charge if they do. If you are able to come up with a down payment, most people will be able to find a lender to buy a house." Treasurer Briner

TAKEAWAY

- A credit score shows how likely someone is to repay borrowed money.
- Your credit score is basically your financial reputation.
- Taking action early on, prevents bigger problems later.
- Debt isn't always considered "bad."

ACTIVITY

- Game
- Guest speaker options
- Quiz questions
- Watch: Tips for Teens

DISCUSSION BOARDS

COMPETITION

TBD - OCTOBER 2026

FOR ADVISORS

Subscribe!

FINANCE WITH THE FRIDAYS TREASURER

A Financial Literacy Newsletter

BRADFORD B. BRINER
STATE TREASURER OF NORTH CAROLINA